Sixth Senatorial District Convention.

The Republicans of the several Wards and Towns comprising the Sixth Senatorial District, are invited to meet at the usual place, on the 2d of November, at 7 P.M., to elect delegates from each Assembly District, to the Senatorial Convention, to be held at the same place, on Saturday, the 4th of October, 1857, to nominate a candidate for Senator, to be supported by the Republicans of this District.

JAMES DUDLEY,
John C. WILLIAMS,
Milwaukee, October 1st, 1857.

Friends at the Democratic Caucus.

Dr. HIRSCHMANN, taking the Chair as

President of the late Democratic Reform Convention, in the course of his remarks, distinctly charged that Railroad hands had been brought in to vote down the resident democrats at the caucus to choose delegates to the Democratic State Convention at Madison. The proof of the charge is at hand. In the Diaries of this county, composed of the towns of Gratiot and Milwaukee, Mr. John Tamm was selected by the Chosen men as the man, who must be sent to Madison at all hazards. Doubting whether the people of the district, where there is a large Democratic majority, would send Mr. Tamm, negotiations were made with the authorities of one of the Railroad Companies for aid. The following letter which has been published, explains itself. It was addressed to Mr. Hunter, foreman of the construction train on the Milwaukee &amp; Superior

Railroad:

(Signed) J. B. CROSS,
JAS. LUDINGTON.

P. S.—My election is very anxious to have you attend on me, and when you are in town

please call on me.

Please call on me for the pay of course—

We presume that Mr. Hunter called and received the pay, for the work was done—the man were brought to the place of meeting, voted down the resident Democrats, and elected Mr.

Tobin, who went to Madison, and helped to nominate Mr. Cross.

The proof of the fraud, it is seen, is clear as daylight.

Now, we have no wish to interfere in any little pleasant arrangements which the harmonious democracy may make for carrying on business within their limits; but the people of this state are interested in this matter, for the very plain reason that if Messrs. Cross, LUDINGTON, BARTH-

GROVE &amp; CO., are unscrupulous enough to perpetrate such frauds at their party caucuses, they assuredly will not hesitate at any extent of fraud to carry the elections. Hence we warn our Republican friends to be everywhere on their guard.

The same party—which was guilty of the same party—which was guilty of the election frauds

two years ago at the Barstow, and his associates is now in the field to clear, it is possible, men who supported and defended Barstow's usurpation—

They packed the democratic caucuses with fraudulent votes to secure the nominations; and they will stick at nothing to secure their election.

WATCH THE POLLS CAREFULLY! PAY THIS CUA-

LERO! MARK THE MEN WHO VOTE ILLEGALLY,

AND THE MEN WHO WORK THE WIRES UPON THE

ELECTION. Let it be everywhere understood that the new Election Law is very severe upon those who trifle with the right of suffrage, and that it imposes penalties as follows:

For voting in a town or ward where the person does not reside, but in the right county, 1 to 6 months in every year.

For voting in another county, 1 to 2 years in

State Prison.

For voting more than once, 1 to 2 years in

State Prison.

For voting in this State by residents in another

State, 1 to 3 years in State Prison.

For voting when not qualified according to the Constitution, 2 to 6 months in county jail.

For procuring, aiding, counselling or advising an unqualified person to vote, a fine of $100 to $500, and 1 to 3 years in county jail.

For procuring, aiding, or counselling a person to vote where he does not reside, one to three years in State prison.

For procuring or inducing persons to vote or with their votes, by bribery or threats, a fine of $500 to $100, or three to twelve months in the County jail.

It is to be remarked that Mr. BUCHANAN

"is to be remarked" that Mr.

State Convention at Madison. The proof of this is, that at the Loyal House, on Saturday, the 24th of October, 1857, at 8 o'clock P. M., to nominate a candidate for Senator, to be supported by the Republicans of this District.

M. L. BURKIN,
A. K. WILLIAMS,
Statistical Report Committee.

Milwaukee, October 17, 1857.

Frauds at the Democratic Caucus.

Dr. Hausemann, in taking the Chair as

President of the late Democratic Reform Convention, in the course of his remarks, distinctly charged that Railroad hands had been brought into the caucus to vote down the residents at the State Convention at Madison. The proof of this is, that at the Loyal House, on Saturday,

the 24th of October, 1857, at 8 o'clock P. M., to nominate a candidate for Senator, to be supported by the Republicans of this District.
